

Dr Alasdair McDonnell MP fully supports the South Belfast Partnership's submission. Dr McDonnell has contributed to the SDLP party submission asserting that Belfast must retain its four constituencies, especially if it is to retain its relevance as a major city and urban centre.

Cllr Kate Mullan fully supports the South Belfast Partnership's submission to the boundary commission. Belfast must retain its four constituencies to retain its relevance.